GET YOURSELF TESTED

Who Should Get Tested?

- Anyone who has had any form of sexual activity
- Anyone who has ever shared any drug implements
- Anyone who will be starting a new sexual relationship. Both you and your partner should both be tested and treated, if necessary.

How to Help Prevent STIs

- Choose less risky sex activities
- Use a new condom for every act of vaginal, anal, and oral sex throughout the entire sex act
- Reduce the number of people with whom you have sex
- Limit or eliminate drug and alcohol use before or during sex

TESTING
